Dear Michelle:

RE: 2007 Beacon Awards – January 30th, 2008

On behalf of the Ministry of Transportation's Corporate Services Division, we would like to extend our sincerest thanks to you for presenting an excellent keynote speech at our 2007 Beacon Awards at the Four Points Hotel in Thorold.

From our first meeting, the organizing committee was highly impressed with your desire to learn so much about our organization. You were always available to meet with us and discuss your presentation. We really appreciated you going out of your way to tailor your presentation in order to meet our expectations.

Your presentation titled "The Power of Personal Leadership...How to Communicate, Collaborate and Connect for Outstanding Workplace Relationships" was delivered to approximately 150 participants and aligned perfectly with our vision, mission and values. Furthermore, it was well put together and very humorous.

Your keynote speech was highly energetic, up-lifting and dynamic. As I scanned the audience, it was abundantly clear to me that the audience was highly engaged within one minute of you taking the stage. I personally enjoyed when you shared your personal stories in order to deliver the message. Your enthusiasm and compassion allows you to touch so many people not only at a working level but at a personal level.

After reviewing our evaluation forms, the participants unanimously agreed that you were one of the best speakers they have seen in a while. Here are some of the comments we received:

- "very engaging and entertaining – good blend of humour, relevance and reality"
- "excellent motivational speaker who did the job well with humour & compassion"

- “very knowledgeable, great speaker, honest, excellent communicator”
- “very relevant to all of our daily encounters”
- “one of the best speakers I’ve heard”

Michelle, you’re a very talented presenter and we are very happy to have selected you out of the many speakers that were available. I had high hopes for you at our award ceremony and you certainly did not disappoint me. After listening to you, I knew our event would be a great success – and it was!

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Tony Di Fabio
