Michelle

Just a few words to say thank you very much for the exciting, entertaining and energising presentation you gave at our recent staff development day. You more than exceeded our expectations.

Your presentation showed us better ways of engaging, and communicating with our students and with each other. The positive empowerment that was noticeable in staff at the end of the day has carried forward into the workplace. Our multigenerational workforce really responded to building generation "we" and that applies also to working with our students.

Many staff are actively using your hot ideas.

Thank you again for a tremendous workshop.

Yours sincerely
